

1891
From the Albany Vindicator

Albany Vindicator, January 1, 1891

Mauch-Edwards—Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Thursday, December 25, John W. Mauch of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa to Mary Edwards, Rev. H.A. Rogers officiating. Only relatives and very intimate friends were present to witness the solemn and important ceremony which united the happy couple. The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa of correct habits, pleasant address and the bride is the estimable daughter of A.J. Edwards of Exeter being well known and having a large circle of friends. The names of those present at the ceremony are: Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. H.M. Barnes, Harvey Edwards and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkendall, Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Edwards, Jas. Edwards, Albert Edwards and son, Bryant Myers, Miss May Edwards, Miss Ida Barns(?). The time was pleasantly spent in social conversation and in eating a rich and bountiful feast after which the guests departed. After a short visit here Mr. and Mrs. Mauch will leave for their future home in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

Died, at the home of her son W.H. Peebles, December 25, Mrs. S.V. Peebles in her 87th year. She was born in Madison County, New York on August 21, 1804 where she lived until the age of 24 when she was married to Seth V. Peebles and removed to Chatauqua County, New York. In 1846 they came Wisconsin and settled in the town of Albany several miles northeast of this village. Her husband died in February of 1884 since which time she has lived with her son Edward until within the last few months. Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church Saturday afternoon conducted by Rev. R.N. Martin of Evansville and the remains interred in the village cemetery.

An accident by which Miss Mary Gilbertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gilbertson, who reside in the Norwegian Settlement, lost her life occurred near Orford last Sunday. On Wednesday of last week she, together with her brother and sister, went to Orford to visit relatives, driving a spirited team of colts. While outside on Sunday with her brother and another young man, the team became unmanageable and running away, threw Miss Gilbertson out and breaking her neck caused instant death. The young man was also badly hurt. Deceased was about 25 years of age and a general favorite with all who knew her. Her parents, who are aged people, are prostrate with grief. The funeral was held at the Norwegian Church conducted by her pastor Rev. Shevrin.

Attica: We understand F. Stockburn, an old gentleman residing with his daughter Mrs. Frank Butts, is seriously ill and cannot recover.....Jake Gilbertson residing about three miles from Attica, received the sad news that his daughter, a young lady of 22, was killed instantly last Sunday at Orford in a runaway.

Albany Vindicator, January 8, 1891

On New Year's Day, 1891 occurred the marriage of two of Albany's most highly respected young people, John B. Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Francis and Addie Carver, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Carver. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home, in the presence of about 30 near relatives and a few intimate friends, Rev. B.L. Prescott of Brodhead pronouncing the solemn words which joined the hearts and hands for life. The marriage seems fitting in every respect as both contracting parties are handsome, amiable, and possessed of exemplary habits and perfect health. The groom is a traveling salesman for the Janesville Overall Factory being very successful and drawing a large salary. The bride has taught high school for several years holding the position of assistant in the Albany schools at the time of her marriage. The happy couple left for Janesville Monday where they expect to reside. Many handsome gifts were received.

Albany Vindicator, Jan. 15, 1891

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, Monroe, Saturday, January 10, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Warren now have a female quartette.

Albany Vindicator, Jan. 29, 1891

Dewey S. Doolittle was a native of Vermont, born Nov. 11, 1829 and departed this life Jan. 9, 1891, aged 61 years, 1 month and 10 days. He emigrated to the state of New York with his parents at the age of 14 and was married to Caroline Hays on Jan. 1, 1851. In 1855 he moved to Wisconsin and after a residence of 13 years he moved to Iowa and settled near Webster City in 1865 and has resided in Hamilton County since that time. By occupation he was a farmer and by patient industry and economy gained a sufficient competency to bring him comfort in his declining years. He was a sufferer for about 16 years from asthma. In addition he suffered for 8 years with cancer of the stomach which finally terminated his life. As a citizen, Mr. Doolittle commanded, by his upright and manly life, the highest esteem from all who knew him. Loving and true as a husband and father, and as a neighbor he was kind and obliging. He never joined a church but respected the cause of true Christianity. He believed in the supreme ruler of the universe and ever tried to live an honest and upright life. He was a just and righteous man He leaves to mourn his loss a faithful wife and two sons and four daughters. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. B.F. Snook attended by a large concourse of sympathetic friends who followed his remains to the cemetery where they were committed to rest in the bosom of mother earth while the Spirit has forever returned to the God who gave it. F.

The above was handed to us by Mrs. C. Spangler, a sister of the deceased. It was taken from a Webster City paper. Mr. Doolittle lived for a number of years on the farm now owned by G.H. Turner.

Attica: The home of Thomas Campbell, Esq., of Attica was made very pleasant a few days since by the unexpected appearance of Robert Campbell, of Idaho. He left home about 11 years ago to prospect and dig for gold which, it is supposed, he found. He will return again in the spring.

Attica: We are informed Ed Wilcox has sold his farm and contemplates moving to Rolfe, Iowa. John Nye also intends to move to Iowa in the spring.

John Hogan and Rose Ennis, both of Magnolia, were married in the Catholic Church at Brodhead on Monday morning.

Married, at the residence of the bride, on Sunday evening Feb. 1, J. Fred Benkert and Franc (this may have been meant to be Francie or Frances) Burns both of this city, Rev. H.G. Roberts officiating.

Albany Vindicator, Feb. 19, 1891

Miss Lillian Dorman will in the future make her home with Mr. and Mrs. P.C. Wessel, they having made out papers for the adoption.

Charles H. James, nephew of Charles Tompkins is visiting friends and relatives in Albany. Mr. James is from Vale of Avoca, Ireland and has just completed a term of enlistment of seven years in the English army stationed in India.

On Thursday evening, Feb.12, at the residence of the groom's father, about six miles north of Albany, occurred a wedding ceremony which united as man and wife Herman Hein of Mt. Pleasant and Lizzie Albricht of Sylvester, Rev. J.C. Kuntz officiating. About 60 of the friends of the happy couple were present to witness the event. The newly wedded pair were the recipients of many useful gifts and beautiful presents as a token of their esteem.

Albany Vindicator, Feb. 26, 1891

The obituary of L.W.P. Morton is in this issue but it has been previously transcribed and can be found at the Green County Message Board on Roots Web.

Attica: On the 18th Feb., at the parsonage of Elder Harris of Oregon, William Laughead and Lillie Bartlett, one of our fairest and most accomplished daughters, were married. Both parties are well known in Attica and highly respected. The newly married couple will remove to Plover, Iowa which will be their future home. They are both members of the church and therefore started out on life's journey as Christians.

Albany Vindicator, March 4, 1891

The obituaries of Price Hills and Rebecca Burt are in this issue but they have been previously transcribed and can be found at the Green County Message Board on Roots Web.

Monticello: Edgar Wilcox and John Nye, two estimable farmers from east of this place have left for Rolfe and Plover, Iowa where they have decided to locate.....Little Henry Zwicky is very sick at this writing with small chance of recovery.

Albany Vindicator, March 12, 1891

The obituaries of Mrs. Jeremiah Brewer and Mr. M.S. Milks are in this issue but they have been previously transcribed and can be found at the Green County Message Board on Roots Web.

Mrs. Richard Smout is in Milton caring for her daughter Belle who is very low with typhoid fever.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart of Brooklyn, on Friday, March 6, a son.

Will Howard, familiarly known as "Stubb" who has been making his home in Osage, Iowa for the past year or more, returned home the latter part of last week.

Albany Vindicator, March 17, 1891

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Jordan Prairie at high noon, March 11, Harvey S. Broughton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H.T. Broughton and Callie L. Mitchell, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Mitchell. The ceremony was preformed by Rev. J. Andreck of Juda while the contracting parties stood beneath a lovely arch of evergreens and magnolia blossoms which, with orange blossoms Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Sherman sent from the sunny south for the occasion. The bride was attired in beautiful old Rose Henrietta cloth with lace points and flowers. About 60 friends and relatives partook of the bountiful dinner which was handsomely served. The wedding gifts were numerous and valuable.

The above was taken from the Brodhead Independent. These two estimable young people are well known in their respective neighborhoods. A reception was held at the residence of the bridegroom's parents Thursday and on Friday the newly wedded pair left for a short visit with friends at Janesville and Rockford.

Albany Vindicator, March 26, 1891

W. H. Hudson left for Freeport and Dixon, Illinois on business. He will spend several days with his daughter at the latter place, Mrs. J.A. Hesse.

Mrs. S. H. Flint went to Milton yesterday to see the little granddaughter who arrived at Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borden's on the 24th inst.

The remains of John Garrigan of Brodhead were interred in the Catholic Cemetery here on Sunday. He was about 28 years old.

Mrs. Josephine Silver attended the funeral of her sister Mrs. G.O. Stearns of Monroe on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Carrie Reese of Chicago is paying a three week visit to her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mitchell.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on Monday, March 23, a daughter.

Mrs. J. J. Newman of Juda is here on a visit to her daughter Mrs. Charles Edwards.

Albany Vindicator, April 2, 1891

Attica: Married, at the parsonage of Rev. Harris of Oregon, James Kingdon to Julia Eggleston one of Attica's fairest daughters. The young couple are held in the highest esteem and are well worthy of each other.

Albany Vindicator, April 23, 1891

O.M. Baker, an early settler and for 35 years a resident of Monticello, died last Saturday at the age of 87.

Attica: Miss Cleo Jackson of Evansville is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Fenton....Word has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. John Nye, who recently moved to Iowa, lost their only child, a bright, active little fellow, about three years old.

Albany Vindicator, April 30, 1891

On Wednesday morning, April 29, John O'Donnell and Grace Wallihan of Dayton were united in marriage at St. Rose's parochial residence in Brodhead. The happy couple left for Chicago the same day for a few days visit after which they will return to Albany to settle down.

On Monday of last week we received a box of wedding cake and a brief note which read as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Atherton were married April 19 at 7:00 p.m. in the presence of immediate relatives. We have our home already furnished and go to housekeeping on Washington Street. Come and see us." As there was nothing in the note to indicate who the bride was we could not make any note of the marriage in our last issue. We have now learned that the bride is Ida Byrne of Juda, the groom being the postmaster of the same village.

Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Glennan's four month old daughter who was brought here from Milwaukee some days ago in the hope that pure air and careful nursing would restore it to health died Sunday night. Brief services were held over the remains on Tuesday afternoon by H.A. Rogers.

Albany Vindicator, May 7, 1891

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Keen of Monroe on Friday, 1st inst., a son.

News has been received of the death of Rev. John Wixer of North Canyonville, Oregon which occurred on April 4. The reverend gentleman had lived in that vicinity about 16 years during which time he founded several churches and accomplished much good for his Master's cause. Deceased was 52 years of age. He was a brother-in-law to Mrs. Melzar Colton.

Albany Vindicator, May 28, 1891

Mrs. Emma Chisler of Republican City, Nebraska and John Fatherlos of Kendall, Wisconsin visited Henry Fatherlos' family Saturday and Sunday. The former is a niece and the latter is a brother of Henry Fatherlos.

Miss Ethel Patterson has gone on an extended visit to relatives in Centreville, South Dakota, Seward, Lincoln and other points in Nebraska. At Seward she will visit her father and brother whom she has not seen for about 8 years.

Mrs. Haley of Brodhead spent Friday and Saturday with her daughter Mrs. J.L. Sherron.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Croake mourn the loss of their daughter aged one year who died Tuesday. The funeral occurs today.

Married, at the Central House in Argyle on Sunday, May 24, R.E. Bartlett and Edith Silver, both of Albany. Both the contracting parties are well and favorably known and received the best wishes of all.

Married, at the U.B. parsonage in Rutland, Wisconsin, on May 24, Earnest Graves of Rutland and Ida Smith of Albany, Rev. O.S. Reed officiating. The groom is a brother of Frank Graves of this city and is a worthy young man. The bride is a niece of Scott Peckham with whom she has made her home nearly if not quite since infancy and is an estimable young lady.

Mrs. O.E. Terry, wife of one of Brodhead's popular young merchants, died Saturday of spinal meningitis superinduced by an attack of la grippe. A husband and two little children mourn their loss.

Albany Vindicator, June 4, 1891

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. William Tilley today, June 4, a son, nine pounds.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Grosling on Monday, June 1, a son, nine and a half pounds.

Attica: Charlie Eggleston of Brooklyn came out Sunday and his sister Mrs. James Kingdon accompanied him on account of the illness of their mother Mrs. Lamb. . . . Mrs. Jacobson, living three miles south of here has been missing since Sunday and parties are out searching for her. She was partly deranged when she left and promised to return at a certain time but up to this time has not been found. . . . Mrs. Knudson and daughter Julia have been visiting their brother and uncle Ben Cleveland on Sunday. They brought with them little Clara Cleveland who has been staying with them for the past nine months.

Albany Vindicator, June 18, 1891

The man friends of Mrs. E.A. Jones who left Albany a few weeks ago to join her husband in Knoxville, Tennessee will be grieved and shocked to learn of her death which occurred on the 17th inst. We publish below a letter from Mrs. Addison DeCendre giving the particulars: "Mrs. E.A. Jones, formerly of Albany, died in Knoxville, Tennessee on June 17 at 8:00 p.m. of congestion of the stomach. She was sick but one week. Brother Jones has the warmest sympathy of friends here in his bereavement and would like to write his friends but is unable to do so."

Died, at her home in Milwaukee, Saturday, June 13 of lung difficulties, Mrs. Stella M. Herrick Glennan, aged 28 years, 8 months and 28 days. With profound sorrow was the news of this sad death received here on Sunday evening by friends and relatives among whom the deceased mingled since her birth with the exception of the last three years when she resided in Milwaukee. She had been sick for several months and had suffered much pain but when the hour for departure came she sank peacefully and without a struggle into her last long sleep. Deceased was born in this village in Sept. 15, 1862 and received a common school education here after which she attended for some years high school both in Brodhead and Janesville. On March 4, 1877 she was bereft of her mother and on June 7, 1886 her father followed and by the aid of near relatives and friends she passed her life from girlhood into that of womanhood without a stain on her character. In the year 1878 she experienced religion and was baptized by Rev. Patten and she became a member of the Baptist Church. On May 2, 1888 she was married to R.H. Glennan of Albany and after residing here for a time, they removed to Milwaukee where she died. Her last moments came to her in the presence of loving relatives, friends and acquaintances who gathered at her bedside. She made full preparations for her departure as well as her last resting place, selecting also the gospel hymns. The remains arrived here Tuesday noon and the funeral services took place at the Baptist Church at 2:00 where a large concourse of young and loving friends gathered to look for the last time upon the face of her who laid cold in death. Rev. J.S. Dinsmore after reading the Biblical lesson on death followed with remarks sweet and appropriate. Tears flooded many eyes as the divine pictured the sad taking away of one of the brightest and most promising young women. The casket was completely buried in flowers and all beautifully arranged. Stella, goodbye, you will not be forgotten. Among relatives from Milwaukee who accompanied the husband with the remains were Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Herrick, Mrs. G.C.

Haddock, Mrs. F.A. Caldwell. Mr. R. Glennan and daughters Misses Mary and Sadie of Albany were also present.

Attica: Mr. Clark is no better but gradually failing day by day.....Mrs. Alice Donovan of Nebraska is visiting her sister Mrs. Robert Kirkendall.

Albany Vindicator, June 25, 1891

Frank Sweet of LeRoy, Minn., is paying a visit to Thomas Gravenor's family. The young gentleman is a cousin of Mrs. Gravenor.

Married, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. James Jameson at Magnolia on Sunday, June 21, Howard Fleek of Jordan Prairie to Una Case of Albany.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents in Barrington, Illinois on Wednesday, June 24, C.C. Flint of Albany to Florence Sizer of Barrington, Illinois. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. S.H. Flint and for several months has held the lucrative and responsible position of U.S. Postal clerk having the run between Galena and Lancaster. The happy couple arrived here on the morning train for a few days visit with relatives and friends.

Albany Vindicator, July 16, 1891

F.L. Holiday, who has been visiting here for the past few weeks, returned to work in Beloit on Tuesday. His wife will remain here for a time to care for their little son who came to brighten their home a few days ago.

Samuel Copeland left for Toronto, Canada on Monday where he will spend about two months visiting the home of his boyhood and his relatives all of whom live at Lindsay, St. Catharine's and other points in that vicinity.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dorr is very low with brain fever.

Mrs. M.E. Murrey, nee Jennie Francis, of Primghar, Iowa, arrived here on Saturday evening to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Miss Nellie Wallihan of Dayton spent the past week with her sister Mrs. John O'Donnell.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Atherton, on Thursday, July 16, a son.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. F.L. Holiday, on Sunday, July 12, a son.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Stevenson on Wednesday, July 15, a son.

Rudolph Karlen, a wealthy farmer in the town of Washington, committed suicide on the 8th inst., by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun. Mental depression caused by ill health was the cause of the rash act. He leaves a wife and several children and property valued at $25,000. He was 40 years old and a Swiss by birth.

Married, at the residence of Albert Webb of Magnolia, on July 12, Samuel Mitchell to Mrs. Sarah Kibbe. Mr. Mitchell is one of the pioneers of this state and is known for miles around as a man of sterling character, genial disposition and who by hard labor has earned for himself a handsome competence. The marriage is a most auspicious one and meets the approval of all who know the contracting parties.

Married, at the M.E. parsonage on July 12, Lucius Roller of Milwaukee to Ella Ackerknecht of Albany. The groom is a skillful iron moulder and an exemplary young man and worthy of the prize he has won. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ackerknecht, an amiable young lady who counts her friends by the score. Mr. Roller returned to Milwaukee yesterday, his wife remaining here for the present.

William Webb was called to Rockford on Monday of last week to minister to the closing hours of his brother, David Webb of that city the latter passing away at 8:00 the same evening. Deceased was born in Cassinovia, New York on July 10, 1811 and when 21 years of age went to Painesville, Ohio where he married Julia A. Cone(?) who with one son and three daughters survives him. He has made his home in various states residing in Sedan, Kansas at the time of his decease but was on a visit to a daughter in Rockford. Mr. Webb was a life long Christian, an exemplary upright man who was respected by all who knew him. The funeral was held in Rockford on the 8th inst. Deceased visited his brother William Webb in this city about 12 years ago.

Albany Vindicator, July 21, 1891

Attica: We understand that Julius Hines, an old Attica boy, was married at California to Miss Morgan this spring.....Granville Smith of California is back again after an absence of two or three years. He will not go back again until next spring.....Joshua Clark died at his residence on Sunday of a lingering illness of six weeks. Mr. Clark is an old pioneer of this place and was therefore well known in this community. He was in his 75th year and a man of good moral habits and a kind husband and loving father. He leaves a widow and three daughters, Mrs. George Whipple, Mrs. Charles Ross and Mrs. Emmett Scott to mourn his loss. His funeral was conducted on Monday forenoon at the house conducted by Rev. H.A. Rogers.

Master David and Miss Daisy Hevrin spent the latter part of last week in Brodhead with their grandmother Mrs. H.B. Goodaire.

Mrs. Frank Rowan and Miss Eliza Smith of Warren, Ohio and Mrs. Benjamin Fitch of Osealoosa, Iowa are guests of Robert and John Stevenson's family this week. The ladies are sisters.

Married, at the residence of Henry Oates on July 23, Clement Williams of Chicago and Anna Macloy (or Maclay) of Waterloo, Iowa. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Oates and came here on a visit on the 20th. On Friday morning the happy couple took the train for Chicago where they will make their home. Mr. Williams is an employee of Marshall Field and Company.

Married, at the M.E. parsonage in this city on Wednesday, July 29, Harvey Wood to Leota M. Moore, both of Magnolia, Rev. H.A. Rogers officiating.

Monticello: Mrs. Volney Morton visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. Brown in Clarno several days last week.....Mr. and Mrs. Fogg who have been visiting with the lady's sister Mrs. F.J. Breylinger, returned to their home in Indiana.

Albany Vindicator, August 6, 1891

Peter Lichtenwalner of Monroe, one of the old settlers of Green County, died on the 3rd inst., aged 71 years.

Peter Wilson of Clear Lake, Iowa, arrived here on Tuesday morning on a visit to his daughter Mrs. L.H. Hilliard.

J.J. Putnam of Ft. Worth, Texas is visiting relatives here. He is a brother of H.D. Putnam, Mrs. J.F. Annis and Mrs. W. Atherton.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Turner on the death of their son Henry Roland Turner who passed away on Tuesday morning, Aug. 4 after a few hours illness of cholera infantum. The funeral takes place at 2:00 today at the M.E. Church. He was but two years of age.

Married, at the residence of the bride on Aug. 2, Louis W. Briggs and MRS. Mary Truax, both of Albany, Rev. H.A. Rogers officiating.

Albany Vindicator, Aug. 13, 1891

The obituary for Joseph Partridge is in this issue but it has already been transcribed and can be found at the Green County, Wisconsin Message Board.

Albany Vindicator, Aug. 27, 1891

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gritzmaker on Monday, Aug. 24, a son.

Albany Vindicator, Sept. 3, 1891

We overlooked mention of the new arrival at Jas. Mathem's residence on Tuesday of last week, it is a daughter.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents in this city, on Sat., Aug. 29, Francis Atkinson to Maggie Bell, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H.A. Rogers. They left this morning for Arlington, S.D. and other points west for a month's visit with relatives.

Died, Stella L. Dorr, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dorr on Monday morning, Aug. 31 after a seven week illness of brain fever. The funeral was held at the M.E. Church on Tuesday afternoon conducted by Rev. H.A. Rogers.

Albany Vindicator, Sept. 10, 1891

Mrs. Orrin Paddock of Prophetstown, Illinois is enjoying a two week visit here the guest of her sister Mrs. Parker Dodge. They had not met each other for the past 11 years.

The obituary for Mrs. G.L. Holiday is in this issue but it has already been transcribed and can be found at the Green County, Wisconsin Message Board at Rootsweb.

Albany Vindicator, Sept. 10, 1891

Attica: Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Pliny(?) Root, a daughter.

Monticello: Will Rudolph and Etta Magoon were married last week on Thursday. Rumor says they will occupy Mr. Rudolph's house on Prospect Avenue in the near future.

Albany Vindicator, Sept. 24, 1891

Mrs. John Burr of Postville, Iowa and Mrs. John Carter of Monticello visited at Peter Benston's from Saturday until Monday. Mr. Burr and Mrs. Benston are sisters.

The obituary for Stephen Eldred is in this issue but it has already been transcribed and can be found at the Green County, Wisconsin Message Board at Rootsweb.

Married, Clifford Bongey of this city and Ellen Malis(?) of Monroe at St. Victor's Church in Monroe on Tuesday, Sept. 22, Rev. Father O'Brien officiating. After a brief visit to Elgin, Illinois the happy couple will make their home here.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hevrin on Thursday, Sept. 17, a son.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. George Smith on Friday, Sept. 18, a son.

Birth to Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Keylock of Attica on Thursday, Sept. 24, a nine pound daughter.

Albany Vindicator, October 1, 1891

Although we are tardy in mentioning the fact of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Griffin on Sept. 13, the parents are none the less proud of its advent.

Married, at the residence of Charles Edwards in this city on Monday, Sept. 27, Albert E. Edwards to Minnie D. Pratt, both of Monticello, Rev. H.A. Rogers officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Atherton left for their home in Laredo, Missouri on Monday after a two week visit with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Albany Vindicator, October 8, 1891

Miss Victoria Taylor of Brodhead is here taking care of her sister Mrs. Ed Wessel who is quite sick.

Last Saturday, Oct. 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Mitchell on Jordan Prairie was observed the 24th anniversary of their wedding. A large number of guests were present and presented the happy couple with an elegant tea service, set of dishes, silver cake basket, silver berry spoon, and cake knife, standard lamp, upholstered rocker, pickle castors and books.

Married, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Jas. Jameson at Magnolia, on Friday, October 2, Arthur H. Partridge and Jessie M. Francis, both of Albany.

Mrs. Angeline Palmer of Bridgeport, Wisconsin, who has been paying a three week visit to her niece, Mrs. S.C. Wallace, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Parker Dodge, Mrs. Arthur Partridge and Miss Amanda Wessel were baptized in the mill pond last Sunday by Rev. J.C. Carter.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. S.S. Mitchelltree on Saturday, Oct. 3, a ten pound daughter.

The obituaries for both Melzar Colton and Stephen A. Scott are in this issue but they have previously been transcribed and are on the Green County, Wisconsin Message Board at Rootsweb.

Albany Vindicator, October 15, 1891

Married, at the residence of Evan Pryce just east of this city on Tuesday evening, October 13, G.H. Wood of Evansville and Maggie Holley of Albany, Rev. J.C. Carter officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony. The groom is employed as a clerk in the Grange store and is a young man of exemplary habits and well liked by all who know him. The bride has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Pryce since infancy and enjoys the friendship and love of a very large circle of friends. The happy couple will make their future home in Evansville.

Reunion Class of 1850

A very pleasant reunion of old classmates of Mrs. Roxy Neal of Clarksville, Iowa and Mrs. Hannah Lyon of Emmetsburg, Iowa was held at the residence of William R. Lewis last Friday. Each one of the party contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion by telling stories of school days long since gone by, singing old songs, etc. Those who could not be present through distance or others who had crossed the "dark river" were held in kindly remembrance. Among the features of the entertainment was a leaf from an old school register containing the names of the Class of 1850. As the affair was an informal one a fine of 5 cents was imposed on each person who used other than the given name of those present and the proceeds used to purchase a memento of the occasion for "Roxy" and "Hannah". All united in saying that it was a day to be long remembered. The following persons were present: Charles R. Smiley, Emily Smiley, J.A. Clemmer, Rhoda Clemmer, John L. Sherbundy, W. Neal, R.C. Whitcomb, Marguerita Whitcomb, Harriett Flint, J.M. Whitcomb, L. Hulburt, Oscar J. Sutherland, Hannah Lyon, Lottie Sutherland, Harlow T. Bouton, Sarah Bouton, Julia A. Broughton, Clara Comstock, Mary Comstock, Robert Stevenson, Lucinda Stevenson, Hattie A. Bagley, Helen Hudson.

Albany Vindicator, October 22, 1891

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. H.B. White, on Thursday, October 15, an eight pound son.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sutherland of Darien County, New York are visiting relatives in this vicinity. The gentleman is a brother of George A. Sutherland of this city.

William Blount of Monroe, well known to many of our citizens, married Ida Underwood of Avoca, Wisconsin on the 14th inst.

Mordecai Kelly, one of the pioneers of Green County, died at his home in Monroe last Sunday, aged 82.

The obituary of George Sutton is in this issue but it has been transcribed already and can be found at the Green County, Wisconsin Message Board at Rootsweb.

Attica: William Laughead of Plover, Iowa arrived here Monday morning bringing the sad news of the death of Mrs. George Laughead. She was a sister of Henry and James Kingdon of this place. Mr. Laughead was well known in this community having been born and raised here but for the past three years he resided in Plover, Iowa. The body arrived on Tuesday. The funeral was held at the stone school house on Jug Prairie and the remains laid to rest at the cemetery there.

Monticello: Mrs. Henry Gale is dying at this writing and those people living at a distance have been telegraphed for.

Albany Vindicator, November 26, 1891

Married, at the residence of John Talmage of the town of Brooklyn on Nov. 25, Henry A. Montgomery and Mary E. Talmage, Rev. H.A. Rogers officiating. The bride was born and raised here. The groom is a prosperous farmer living near Brooklyn and has every appearance of being a gentleman.

Albany Vindicator, December 3, 1891

George E. Atkinson, son of Rev. William Atkinson of Brodhead, sails today for the Phillippines where he has been appointed a government teacher in Manila.

Arthur Wagner and Lina Schneider of Monroe were married in Rockford a year ago the fact just now becoming known.

Gaylord Butcher and Mary Ryan both of Magnolia were married at the Catholic Church at Brodhead on Nov. 25.

Jordan Prairie: The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gritzmacker died very suddenly on Tuesday morning. It was not well on Monday but seemed better at night. They went to bed with it and when they awoke at 2:00 am it was dead. They have just moved onto Mrs. Susan Fleek's farm.

Jordan Prairie: Mr. and Mrs. George Dawson are happy over the arrival of a baby boy.

Albany Vindicator, Dec. 17, 1891

Married, at the M.E. parsonage, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 16, Louis A. Sutherland to Hattie D. Edwards. The groom is the son of Erick Sutherland and the bride is the daughter of Pembroke Edwards all of Sylvester. Rev. H.A. Rogers officiated.

The following is copied from a Darlington paper: It is again my pleasure to notice a happy event in the marriage of Mabel Bates of this city to C.M. Hood of Janesville, which took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bates, at 4:00 Sunday afternoon, Rev. Booth officiating. The bride is one of Darlington's fairest daughters, a graduate of our high school and a beautiful, amiable, accomplished young lady. The groom, although located here but a short time, in the interest of the North West Life Insurance Company, has won scores of friends. The wedding was a quiet one attended by only relatives of the contracting parties.

Monticello: Mrs. Belle Caldwell of Milwaukee left for that place on Thursday after a week visit with her parents M.L. Barney and wife.

Attica: Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Lewis, a daughter.

Albany Vindicator, December 31, 1891

The obituary for Mrs. Thomas Flint is in this issue but it has already been transcribed and in on the Green County, Wisconsin Message Board at Rootsweb.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Pierson of Grand Meadow, Minnesota are spending the holidays here with their niece and nephews Mrs. Abbey Murrey and Ed and Adrien Phelps.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Roller of Milwaukee are spending the holidays with the lady's parents Mr. and Mrs. August Acherknecht.

---