

Green County Men Killed in World War I

Albany Vindicator, March 6, 1919

(Transcriber's note, the below show a great percentage died of "pneumonia" this was the effect of the Spanish Influenza epidemic of the winter of 1918-19.)

27 Green County men gave their lives in the Great World War. A list of the departed heroes including the place where death occurred, the cause of death, next of kin and home addresses has been prepared by P.F. Neverman in compiling the Green County war history.

Albright, William Edwin, Clarno
Edwin Albright, father, Clarno
Died France, September 16, 1918, heart trouble

Amstutz, Fred, Monticello
Mrs. Sam Amstrutz, mother, Monticello
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H.
Sergeant
Killed in Action in France, August 5, 1918

Bartlette, William Guy, New Glarus
R.E. Bartlette, father, New Glarus
Died at Jefferson Barracks, January 25, 1918 of spinal meningitis

Butler, Garnet, Monroe
G.G. Butler, Monroe (relationship not given)
Died, in Camp Merritt March 2, 1918 of diphtheria laryngitis

Caradine, John Gerald, Monroe
H.N.B. Caradine, father, Monroe
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H
Corporal
Wounded August 6, in the second battle of the Marne. Died as a result of wounds August 12, 1918

Campbell, Alfred P., Argyle
Mrs. Ed Miller, sister, Argyle
86th Division, 123rd Regiment, Company C
Killed in Action October 4, 1918

Clayton, J.W., Monroe
W.D. Clayton, father, Monroe
Depot Brigade, Company 23
Sergeant

Died at Camp Grant of pneumonia October 6, 1918

Coryell, Stanley, Browntown

D.J. Coryell, father, Browntown

32nd Division, 128th Regiment, Company D

Killed in Action August 2, 1918 (no place shown)

Gorham, Ralph William, Monroe

E.G. Gorham, father, Monroe

Died at Madison October 24, 1918, pneumonia

Haren Arthur Willis, Monroe

D.H. Haren, father, Monroe

Died of pneumonia October 6, 1918 overseas

Holcomb, Ralph

R.T. Holcomb, father, Monroe

4th Division, 13th F.A., Battery C. (transcriber's note, probably "field artillery")

Died, of pneumonia on return to U.S.

Jones, Herbert, Albany

Walter Jones, father, Albany

Died in France November 28, 1918 of pneumonia

Lewis, Walter C., Monticello

John Lewis, father, Monticello

Died, in France November 2, 1918 of bronchial pneumonia

McDermott, Thomas W., Albany

(no next of kin listed)

Accidentally killed on May 27, 1918 in France

Martin, August Gottlieb, Boscobel

Mrs. Katherine Martin, mother, Boscobel

Died in France October 16, 1918

Maso, William Frederick, Monroe

Mrs. Charlotte Maso, wife, Monroe

Died at Great Lakes Training Station September 23, 1918 of bronchial pneumonia

Mueller, Ernest Grover, Monroe

Mrs. Magdalena Mueller, mother, Monroe

32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H

Sergeant

Died of pneumonia October 27, 1918

Odermatt, August A., Monroe
Mrs. Charles Schott, sister, Monroe
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H.
Corporal
Died, from result of wounds October 13, 1918, France

Rhyner, Leonard W., Monticello
Mrs. Caspar Rhyner, mother, Monticello
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H
Died, of pneumonia in France, October 14, 1918

Ruchti(?), Alfred, Monroe
Adolph Ruchti(?), father, Orangeville, Illinois
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H
Died, in France as a result of wounds August 21, 1918

Stauffacher, Leroy Arthur, Blanchardville
Mrs. Martin Stauffacher, mother, Blanchardville
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company F
Corporal
Died, in France from result of wounds received October 18, 1918

Stuessy, Walter W., New Glarus
Magdaline Stuessy, mother, New Glarus
Died, of wounds received October 18, 1918

Swann, James Lee, Brodhead
Taylor Swann, father, Brodhead
Died from scarlet fever, Vancouver, Washington, April 24, 1918

Wendorf, Wallace, Monroe
A.F. Wendorf, father, Monroe
Died, at Camp Perry, Great Lakes November 17, 1918 of pneumonia

Wishser, Emil, New Glarus
Mrs. Ziltner, New Glarus (no relationship shown)
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H
Died, in France from result of wounds received in action April 30, 1918

Zilmer, Glen R., Monroe
Ed Zilmer, father, Monroe
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H
Sergeant
Killed in Action August 10, 1918

Zimmerman, Victor, Juda

W.H. Zimmerman, father
32nd Division, 127th Regiment, Company H
Killed in Action, July 31, 1918