The funeral was today.

Albany Vindicator, July 11, 1901

Edward Jones was born in Montgomeryshire, North Wales on Jan. 5, 1815 and was married to Jane Williams on Sept. 5, 1853. In June of 1855 together with his wife he left his native land and came to America. He settled in the town of Albany where he resided up until the time of his death which occurred at the family home at noon on Saturday, July 6 aged 86 years, 6 months and 1 day. Deceased was the father of five children, four sons and one daughter. The eldest son was Edward, who died about 19 years ago. The daughter Ann is the wife of Seymour Purinton. Oliver is married to Laura Bubb and David and George are living with their mother on the old homestead. Funeral services were held at the family residence Sunday, July 7 at 2:00 pm conducted by Elder E.P. Graves. The remains were taken to the Albany cemetery for interment followed by a large number of friends who sympathized with the bereaved family in this their hour of mourning.

Disappointed in love, J.U. Fruch, a cheese maker employed by Paul Schraepfer on the old Dalymple farm a mile and a half east of Dayton committed suicide Sunday evening. Fruch had been keeping company with one of Schraepfer's daughters and on the 4th she attended a dance with an old fellow and he was going back to see her on Sunday evening. Fruch and the girl were milking between six and seven o'clock and Fruch asked the girl if he might see her that evening. He was given an unsatisfactory answer, she refusing to go with him any longer and when he finished milking he bade her goodbye. He went to the factory and blew off the top of his head with a shotgun. He was found dead on the floor of the packing room. An inquest was held on Monday afternoon, the jury agreeing that it was a plain case of suicide. Fruch was a member of the Concordia lodge I.O.O.F. #124 of Monroe. The remains were taken there and buried in the lot of the lodge. Fruch was born April 20, 1873 in Canton, Appenzel, Switzerland where his mother, two sisters and a brother reside. The lodge has possession of his trunk and belongings and will notify relatives.

Albany Vindicator, August 1, 1901

Married, at Monroe on Thursday, July 25, Homer Barryman of Mt. Pleasant to Sarah Larmer of Brooklyn by Rev. G.W. Case.

Friday, July 10 was the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Elder and Mrs. E.P. Graves. They did not intend any formal celebration of the event but their children and grandchildren happily surprised them early in the day and proceeded to make it an occasion of rejoicing and merry making. They succeeded admirably and made it a day to be long remembered. Those present were Reuben Graves and wife of Oregon; Fred Graves and family and Earnest Graves of Fulton; Mrs. Florence Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ellis of Rutland; Mrs. Hugh Roberts of Brooklyn; Mrs. Ava Murray of Endeavor; F.E. Graves and family of Albany. A big dinner was served at noon. Two handsome fancy rocking chairs were presented the elder and his wife as mementoes of the occasion.

Sunday night the farm house of Armon Armonson, three miles north of New Glarus, was burned to the ground. Mrs. Armonson and a crippled 8 year old son perished in the flames. The fire started in the sitting room and the family slept in rooms upstairs. They were not awakened until the stairs were burned away. Two boys jumped out of a window.

A.B. Hightshoe of Sigourney, Iowa, is paying a visit to relatives in this vicinity. Mr. Hightshoe's parents live in Sylvester in an earlier day, removing to Missouri in 1865. He is a nephew of the late C.W. Burns and brother of Mrs. Margaret Fleek of Brodhead.

Albany Vindicator, August 8, 1901

Dr. John Holden Warren Aug. 23, 1825 to August 1, 1901 Dr. J.H. Warren, a pioneer resident of this state, a former state senator and for many years prominent in the business and political life of this county and of the state, died at Palmyra Springs Thursday morning of cerebral embolism. He has been a sufferer from nervous trouble for the past ten years. His death was sudden, he having retired in his usual health Wednesday night after enjoying a days visit with Stanley B. Smith and wife of Janesville. John H. Warren was 76 years of age. He was born in Hogansburg, Franklin Company, New York on Aug. 23, 1825. He was of a splendid family. His grandfather served in the Revolutionary War and his father was a descendant of the New England Warrens and was a soldier in the War of 1812. John Warren came west when he was a young boy and came directly to Rock County. He came by the way of Johnstown and settled in La Prairie. In 1838 he came to Janesville and attended the first school taught there. At the age of 20 he studied medicine with Dr. Nichols of Janesville and afterwards with Dr. Dwyer of Chicago and graduated with honors from Rush Medical College in 1849. He was the last surviving member of his class and also the last living senator of the early days. Dr. Warren began the practice of medicine at Lodi where he resided until 1851 when he removed to Albany and followed the milling and mercantile business with much success. He was elected to state senator in 1857 and served for five years winning distinction as a statesman. In 1862 he was appointed by Abraham Lincoln as collector of internal revenue, an office he held for seven years. He was also appointed receiver of commutations by Secretary Stanton during the rebellion. He was a stockholder and director of the Sugar River Valley Railway and was for many years the largest mail contractor in the U.S. having over 100 mail routes and being president and general manager of the Western Stage Co., his business taking him to all of the remote places of the country giving him unusual opportunity to study the character of the Indians and in the early days he was one of the strongest advocates of a peace policy towards them. He was for several years vice president of the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society and an enthusiastic worker for the success of that association. He gave to Albany in its infancy his best efforts. In 1880 he worked with untiring effort to build the Sugar River Valley Railroad making many trips to Milwaukee and New York, conferring with officials, laboring unceasingly until the railroad was completed. He always had the best interests of Albany at heart and was ever ready to assist in promoting the interests of the town. In 1879 he removed to Janesville with his family where he resided until 1891 when he removed to Milwaukee. Throughout his public life he gained a reputation for enterprise coupled with that more commendable and rarer element of sterling integrity which served to give him a prominent position among the representative men of the state. In politics he was a republican having been a Whig in early days. He was always a firm believer in zealous work in the cause of intemperance. Dr. Warren was a loving and indulgent husband and father. He was ever ready with money or influence to help those in need or worthy of assistance. He was reared under Presbyterian influence and although not connected with any church organization he was a firm believer in the principle of Christianity and always adhered to the doctrines taught him by his mother. His life is a grand sermon in itself. His remains were brought to Albany Saturday morning and placed in the family vault. After the Episcopal services were conducted by Rev. A.H. Barrington of Christ Church, Janesville, the beautiful Masonic services were conducted by the Albany Lodge 36 of which the deceased was a charter member and former master, assisted by the Brodhead lodge. Dr. Warren leaves a wife, three daughters Julia, Gertrude and Louise and two sons Dr. Herbert N. and Dr. Benjamin H. Warren, two daughters Fannie and Elizabeth having preceded him to the world unknown. Dr. Warren's honesty and integrity was rewarded by success in business interests and he leaves a valuable estate.

Birth, to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Speich, Tuesday, Dec. 3, a son.

One of the most noticeable and enjoyable events which has occurred in this vicinity for many years took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Meinert on Saturday last it being their Golden Wedding anniversary. About 150 friends and neighbors gathered to congratulate them and wish them many more years yet to enjoy their competency which they founded in early life, together with the respect and esteem of all who have the pleasure of their acquaintance. Mr. and Mrs. Meinert have been noted for their hospitality and kind attention to the sick and suffering. The good deeds of such will not be forgotten but remain long after the doers have passed away. One of the pleasantest features of the occasion was a bountiful picnic dinner. The following persons from abroad were present: Mrs. Carr and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strawser of Beloit; Mr. and Mrs. William Carle, Mr. and Mrs. Ashcroft and Miss Bell Strawser of Janesville; Mr. and Mrs. Strauss and Mrs. Wolf and son of Orfordville; Mr. and Mrs. Will Strawser, Mrs. Hiram Bowen and son of Brodhead; Mrs. E. Van Patten of Evansville. A quartette of hilarious and rather indiscreet young ladies attempted to close up and celebrate the evening with a charivari but desisted on hearing of the illness of a little child of one of the guests. As a striking coincidence a similar project was frustrated by illness fifty years ago.

Attica: Mrs. Eliza Tilley of Albany was the guest of her sister Mrs. John Lewis Sunday.

The marriage of Harriett Thurman of this city and Clifford J. Smith of Evansville was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents at 3:00 pm on Wednesday, Rev. C.B. Mayhew, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiating. About 35 guests and relatives of the families were present. Floyd Broughton of Brodhead, presided at the piano playing a beautiful wedding march at the entrance of the couple and during the ceremony. The bride was dressed in white Persian lawn and the groom in the conventional black. The parlors and tables were decorated with white bride's roses, carnations and many beautiful potted plants. After the ceremony all sat down to a beautiful dinner. The happy couple went to housekeeping at once in a handsome residence previously furnished, in Evansville. Mr. Smith is a bookkeeper and secretary for the Baker Manufacturing Company and stands in high esteem of all who know him. The bride has more than the usual number of friends and will be greatly missed.

Charles R. Jackson was born at Riverside, Wisconsin on March 3, 1866 and died in Albany on December 4. The deceased moved to this place about 11 years ago and has resided here since. He was married to May Matthews on March 5, 1893. Three small children survive this union. About seven years ago Mr. Jackson became seriously afflicted and had continued to grow steadily worse until death came to his relief. He bore his sufferings patiently and had a cheerful word for all who came to see him. Mr. Jackson had never made any profession of religion until about two weeks ago before his death when he was clearly converted through the faithful efforts of a Christian friend. After this he seemed very happy and prepared for his death. About two hours before he died he called his wife and family to his bedside and bade them farewell, requesting them to meet him in Heaven. He also said that these would be his last words and they were; he never spoke again. Funeral services were held Saturday, Dec. 7 in the M.E. Church where a congregation of friends had gathered to pay their last respects. Interment was made in the village cemetery.

J.A. Conklin, one of the earliest settlers of this vicinity, died at his home in Mamouth, Oregon on the 8th inst. Mr. Conklin was born on the present site of the city of Niagara Falls, on Nov. 26, 1822 and came to Albany with his widowed mother and younger brother and sisters. In 1853 he married Arcelia Oviatt and three years later moved to central Iowa. Eight children were born to them, only four of whom survive the mother who was laid to rest at Iowa Falls, Iowa in 1874. On April 19, 1876 he was married to Myrtila E. Bishop of Eldorn(?), Iowa who survived to mourn his death. In 1879 Mr. Conklin moved to Table Rock, Nebraska and in 1886 to Togana, Kansas. In 1891 he again moved in search of health to Oregon in which state he has since made his home. Three sisters, Mrs. Peter Gordon of (illegible, Ame??), Wisconsin; Mrs. John Sargent and Mrs. William White of Brodhead; and six children Mrs. J.A. Wing of Ledyard, Iowa; Edward E., residence unknown; Julius M. of Neligh, Nebraska; Asa N. of Clinton, Wisconsin; Jay A. and Myrta L. of Monmouth, Oregon, 13 grandchildren and one great grandchild survive to mourn his loss. He was unselfish, retiring, and never acquired great prosperity but led a quiet, conscientious life and had love and sympathy for his fellow man and these qualities endeared him to all. In young manhood, he became a member of the Baptist Church having been baptized by Rev. Patton and is the last of the charter members of the Baptist Church at Iowa Falls, Iowa to go to his reward.
