

Footville Hustler 1912

Transcriber's note: I had one issue of the Footville Hustler

February 8, 1912

Howard Victor, the little one year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gooch, died at their home east of Footville on Monday morning at 7:00. The funeral will be from the home at 2:00 this afternoon.

Public Sales to be held by auction:

Feb. 12: E. Fenrick and D. J. Lowry, 6 miles southwest of Leyden

Feb. 13: Mrs. E. Martin, 1 ½ mile southwest of Leyden

Feb. 14: Christ Levzow, three miles east of Footville on Footville Road

Feb. 15: Charles Huff, three miles northeast of Footville

Feb. 19: Ed Mooney and William Helmer, four miles west of Janesville on Mineral Point Road

Feb. 20: Charles Topp, two miles northeast of Center store

Feb. 21: Carl Augustine, four miles southeast of Afton

Feb. 26: Frank Helmer, three miles west of Janesville

Feb. 27: Wm. Gottschalk, one mile east of Center store

Feb. 28: Esli Fisk, one mile west of Leyden on Madison Road

Ed Willing has purchased and taken possession of Henry A. Selck's farm, implement and coal business. Mr. Willing's many friends will welcome him back to Footville. He has disposed of his interests in his business at Brodhead to his brother Paul Willing.

Paul O. Zahn has purchased the Wells property on Depot Street now occupied by F. R. Lowry and will take possession in March. He has also taken possession of the former J. P. Devins blacksmith shop recently purchased by him. Mr. Zahn is a son-in-law of Julius Willing. Mr. Frank Lentz remains in the shop with Mr. Zahn.