From the Freeport Bulletin

Two young people of this city have gone to Green County, to Monroe and gotten married. The brakeman on the Madison division of the Central is the authority for the statement that a young couple from this city had skipped the parental roofs and were married at Monroe this morning. Diligent inquiry by the reporter failed to discover whether the report was true or not. Several members of the police force indicated it was true but could not give the names of the young couple. One of the policemen further stated that the lady was but 16 years of age and the young man but several years older. They returned to Freeport this morning. Who can this young couple be?

Editor: They were married here and from the appearances the ceremony was not performed too soon. (See marriage from January 11 paper)

The home of Mrs. Charles Dubs is clothed in mourning. A little bow of crepe on the door and a silence in the home tells the sad story. All day yesterday and last evening patient watchers saw her growing weaker and weaker. Just before she died she whispered "I want to go but it seems so long going. Lord help me to go if it is Thy will". At 9:45 she sank to everlasting sleep. She remained conscious until a few hours before her death. Her case is a sad one. Ten months ago she was taken ill with dropsy and heart disease. She failed rapidly and it was soon seen that she could not live. Last Thursday her death was hourly expected but she surprised her friends by rising from her sick bed and proclaiming herself cured by faith. She appeared to grow stronger for a time and then grew worse again. The deceased was born Nov. 10, 1872 in this city and at her next birthday would have been 18 years. Most of her life has been spent here and she has many friends in the society in which she moved as well as in the M.E. The 5:50 train from the north brought to this city this morning the remains of a young man who is as much of a hero as he who yielded up his life on the bloody field of battle. Thomas Mansfield of Menominee, Michigan was out skating with a young lady friend when the ice broke and both disappeared from sight in the icy waters. When they came to the surface young Mansfield grappled his young lady companion and held her above the ice until help arrived and then, exhausted, sank from sight before he could be rescued. His body was found on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Mansfield was a former resident of Janesville and his sister Miss Mary Mansfield resides at the home of Engineer John Baker, 58 Linn St. Deceased was a bright young man, 20 years of age. He was for a time in the employ of the Nelson Brothers and also of the late James Van Etta. As previously stated, his remains arrived here at 5:50 this morning and will be taken to Monroe at 9:45 for interment. Mr. John Nelson went to Menominee to look after the remains. The orphan sister has the sympathy of all in her bereavement. Janesville Recorder

A dance at Orfordville Saturday night resulted in the tragic death of one of the participants on Sunday morning. Miss Mary Gilbertson resides at Albany, Green County. She was invited by a young gentleman friend of the same place to a dance at Orfordville. She did not care to attend the party and so expressed herself. She was urged by her friends to accept the invitation and finally did so but with great reluctance. The festivities continued until long after Sunday had been ushered in. About 6:00 Sunday morning, she, her escort and another young man also of Albany, started for home. They had a rather dilapidated buggy drawn by a pair of colts. Before they had gotten out of Orfordville, and while on the highway, a rig containing Gilbert Gilbertson and two young ladies one of whom was a sister of Mary Gilbertson, passed the rig occupied by Mary and the two gentlemen. The colts became frightened and shied to one side. The dashboard of the buggy broken and the driver was thrown out onto the whiffle trees. Mary became frightened and jumped out of the buggy. Her dress caught on one of the wheels and she was thrown violently to the ground. She struck on her head breaking her neck. After this, she was dragged about three rods. The other occupant of the buggy reached over the broken dash board in an effort to reach the lines which had fallen down and was thrown out, receiving a scalp wound. Mary was taken up into a furniture store and a doctor summoned. It was found that life was extinct and death was probably instantaneous. Her remains were taken to her home in Albany yesterday. Janesville Recorder

At an early hour this morning, Andrew Bracken of Chicago and Miss Kate Heron of this city were married at St. Victor's Church by Rev. H. O'Brien. The bride was beautifully dressed in a gown of green satin. Ed Carroll was best man and Miss Eliza Heron bridesmaid. After the ceremony they returned to the residence of the bride to enjoy a bountiful repast. They then took their departure for Chicago, their future home.
