We learn from a gentleman from Beloit that last week Tuesday night the house of Mr. Moll about four miles west of Beloit was entered by a Mr. Palmer. While in the act of ruffling a trunk at the foot of his bed, Mr. Moll awoke. As he arose in bed the robber fired at him with a house pistol the contents of which grazed his temple. Moll immediately seized a double barreled shotgun and discharged the contents directly at the head of the thief scattering his brains in every direction. Next day Mr. Moll went to Beloit to be examined and was discharged.

August 1, 1855

Died, on the 17th inst., Kiler Gillett, the eldest son of Ezra and Sophronia Gillett, in the 21st year of his age after an illness of ten days. His disease was called by his physician bilious fever. He was an affectionate son and brother and highly esteemed by all who knew him. As he had neglected to give his heart to God, during his illness he keenly felt the need of Christian faith to support him through the valley and shadow of death. And for that he and his friends earnestly prayed. He then repeatedly exhorted and warned his relations, friends, and neighbors to seek the Lord while it is called today for the night of death will come where no man can work. Then he lingered for a few hours and sank into that sleep that knows no waking until the resurrection. We trust he sleeps with Jesus. May all take warning from this circumstance and lay up their treasures in Heaven. May the God of all grace bind up the broken hearted and give consolation to all who mourn.

Then cease fond nature, cease thy tears

Religion points on high

There everlasting spring appears

And joys that cannot die.

August 8, 1855

Married, at the same time by the same, Jacob Campton to Eusela(?) Trukenbread, both of this place.

Died, at Cadiz on the 10th Aug., Catharine, daughter of John and Susan Saucerman, aged ten years and eleven months.

Died, at the same place on Sept. 10(?) 19(?), John Saucerman, aged 51.

Died, in the same place on Sept. 19, George Saucerman, aged 23.

In less than a month, three members of this worthy and respectable family have been called from the duties of earthly life and to, we humbly trust, that place which is prepared for the people of God. Truly, the dispensation of Providence is a mystery to us and His ways past finding out; man goeth to his long home and the mourners go about the streets.

Died, on the 21st November, of typhoid fever, Daniel Conklen, in the city of Chicago, 31, a resident of Albany. Mr. Conklen had been absent from home about three weeks to visit his relatives and friends in the state of New York and was on his way home to again embrace his family in life when the remorseless hand of death marked him for its own and no medicine could stay the disease. No earthly skill could lengthen his stay. Death called and he must obey the summons. Mr. Conklen leaves a wife and three small children to mourn their bereavement.
