Married, at Monroe on the 21st inst., by Hon. B. Dunwiddie, Alex Jackson, 18th Wisconsin Regiment, to Sarah M. Booth of Monroe.

Died, at the residence of her parents in the town of Clarno, on Tuesday morning, Jan. 30, of typhoid fever, Elizabeth Thorpe, aged 26 years, 4 months and 18 days. We would assure the friends who live far away that although Elizabeth wished to live longer she was not afraid to die. After a severe illness of 26 days she departed peacefully. Upon being asked the question "are you afraid to die" she answered "no". When asked if she would eat some she replied "I will eat tomorrow, I am going home tomorrow". Although Lizzie never belonged to one religious denomination we find her a believer judging from her exemplary life and we believe she has "gone home" to Heaven.

Married, on the 23rd ult., by L. Rote, Esq., Rezin Craven to Anna Miller, both of Monroe

We have a sad duty to perform in announcing the death of Isaac Woodie. He died on Thursday morning last at 10:00. For some months past, Mr. Woodie had been in failing health but had ever cherished a fond hope of recovery. No man possessed a more tender heart or more benevolent impulses than Mr. Woodie and to a large circle of friends at home and abroad his death will come as a personal affliction. Janesville Gazette

Probate: Merritt Osborn, deceased, administrator of the estate to be appointed.

April 23, 1862

Married, on April 20 by Rev. F. B. Rolph, Charles M. Ball to Mary Ostrander, both of Jefferson.

April 30, 1862

Married, at the residence of the bride's father at Clarno, by Rev. P. H. Green, Howard Dunaway to Mary P.(?) Simonds, both of Clarno.

Died, in this village at the house of her son-in-law Thomas H. Eaton, Esq., Mrs. Frances Eagley. She was born Feb. 22, 1782 in Lancaster Co., Pa. She was twice married and twice widowed. At the death of her first husband, Peter Albert, to whom she was married in her 18th year, and who died in 1829, the care of twelve children was thrown onto her hands. The youngest of whom was Mrs. Eaton, was then five years old. She laws a faithful Christian mother. She was again married in 1835 to Jacob Eagley with whom she lived until 1855 when she became a widow for the second time. Mrs. Eagley had a Christian parentage and was reared to the fear of God. Her death was a great example of Christian triumph. A few days ago she became satisfied that her earthly pilgrimage was about to change and the sacrament of the Lord's supper was dispensed to her at her request. The same afternoon she paid a final adieu to her children, grandchildren, calling them to her bedside and exhorting them to a faithful discharge of their several duties; shaking hands and kissing them for the last time. She left messages of love for those who were at a distance. She took an affectionate leave of the neighbors who were present at the time, speaking to them of the love of God. She lingered a few days after this event and then died in peace.

May 14, 1862

J. A. Gleissner has his new barn completed. A more commodious and better located one than that which was burned up last winter.

We have hitherto forgotten to mention the fact that N. Root, who some years ago shot his son-in-law E. C. Foster at Mt. Pleasant and who, upon trial for the offense, was acquitted on the grounds of insanity, and since that time has been confined by the order of the court, has been forwarded to the care of his son in Canada. Henry Adams, Esq., chairman of the board of county commissioners went with Mr. Root to Canada and describes the meeting between the father and son as truly affecting. Let us hope Mr. Root may pass the remaining days of his life possessing his reason.

Died, at Monroe on the 4th inst., P. D. Nobles, aged 86 years, 8 months and 4 days. Mr. Noble was born in Massachusetts in 1775 and emigrated to Kentucky in 1815 where he resided 26 years, removing to this town in 1841 where he continued to reside up to the time of his death. He was a quiet, inoffensive man esteemed by all who knew him. When the final summons came he appeared resigned, expressing a desire to depart and be at rest.

May 21, 1862

On Friday afternoon last near Twin Grove in the township of Jefferson, Horace Hunt was struck by lightning and killed. Mr. Hunt was at work in the field near a straw stack. He had a team, a hired man and two boys with him. The hired man was stunned so severely that he did not recover his consciousness until the team had gone some distance. The boys were also affected so that they were blind for a time. The electrical current struck Mr. Hunt upon the neck and passed through the body and both limbs to his heels. Only about one week ago while Mr. Hunt was taking shelter from a rain storm in horse stable covered with straw, the stable was struck by lightning and he was stunned from the effects of which he had not yet fully recovered.

June 4, 1862

Married, on the 26th inst., by William Biggs, Esq., Robert Davis of Jo Davis County, Ill., to Sirena Brazul(?), of Adams, Green County.

Died, of disease, on April 28, at Huntsville, Alabama, Leroy W. Williams, aged 26, son of Rev. J. L. Williams, (late of this place, now of LaFayette County) Company E, 10th Regiment Wisconsin Volunteers.

Died, on Monday, May 19, Catharine, daughter of (illegible) and Mary Ault, aged 12 years, 3 months and 3 weeks
 In the green graveyard
 They laid her to sleep
 Where the spring's wild vines
 Blossom and creep
 Weep not for her burial
 O'er the presence
 Smile for her spirit
 Has gone home to God.

Probate: Josiah Underwood, deceased—Edward Underwood to be administrator.

Probate: William Crooks—A document purporting to be his last will and testament will be read.

June 18, 1862

Married, at the residence of the bride in Jefferson, by Elder F. B. Rolph (no date given), James Hickman to Mrs. Sarah Whitehead.

June 25, 1862

Married, on the 19th inst., by Rev. E. L. Jackson, William Edwards to Catharine A. Ely, daughter of Henry Ely, all of Monroe.

Died, on 18th June at Mt. Pleasant, William Thompson, formerly of Maine, aged 53.

July 2, 1862

Died, on the 25th May, at the 6th Division Hospital of typhoid fever, James Hall, 18, near Pittsburg Landing, Tennessee. Also, at the same place and of the same disease on the 30th May, Ezra W. Post, aged 19. Also, at the same place and of the same disease on the 26th June, Daniel J. Youngblood, aged 27.

The above named all enlisted at Monroe as soldiers in Captain Jackson's Company, 18th Regiment Wisconsin Volunteers and while serving in the army in Tennessee contracted the disease which caused their death. They passed safely through the battle at Pittsburg Landing (Shiloh), conducting themselves like true soldiers. They now rest where no sorrow can trouble them beneath the soil of the Tennessee Valley never again to be disturbed by battle's toil. We miss them as brothers.

Lt. J. Walkey

Company B, 18th Wisconsin Volunteers

George Spangler appears this week in a new form. (Transcriber's note, this means a new advertisement in the paper.) As a practical mechanic and prudent businessman, George has no superior. His rifles are well known throughout this portion of the state. He still keeps a large supply of fire arms, powder, and all the appliances for sporting.

August 20, 1862

Married, at Monroe at the American House, on the 13th (?) 18th (?) inst., by Rev. C. E. Weirich, William A. Knepley to Anna D. Graham, both of Freeport Married, on the 16th inst., at the same place by the same, George A. Groken to Laura Rickard, both of Green County.

August 27, 1862

We learn that the residence of John Mather in Spring Grove was burned on Tuesday afternoon while all the family was at church. A neighbor discovered the fire in time to save one bed—all the furniture with the one exception was destroyed with the house. When the news reached the church a collection was taken up for their benefit and we learn that about $200 was raised.

Many of our readers in the northeast portion of our county will remember Franklin Hickok who removed to California from the township of Brooklyn about a year ago after residing there for several years. Misfortune seems to have followed him ever since his arrival in the land of gold. Recently three of his children the oldest being 16 years of age, while out picking berries were brutally murdered by Indians. A California paper thus alludes to the severe trials of Mr. Hickok during one short year:

“Franklin Hickok, the father of the girls who were recently murdered near Chico in Butte County by the Indians, arrived in Sacramento at noon yesterday from the Humbolt mines. He had left his family in Butte County and crossed the mountains to Washne(?) in search of employment. Being a mill wright he received an order from John C. Fell to go to the Humboldt mine region to put up a mill. On reaching this spot he learned that different arrangements had been made and that his services would not be needed. While still unemployed he received a message from home informing him of the terrible fate of his three children. The family arrived in this state from Wisconsin about a year ago with very limited means and very soon had a span of horses worth $1,000 stolen from them. The father and the deceased daughter Ida then worked several months for the proprietor of a new flour mill in the northern part of the state who subsequently failed, they losing thereby all that was due them. The experiences of the family in California have been that of misfortune.”

Our postmaster Mr. Bartlett on Monday received the following notice from Beloit. He immediately initiated inquiry for the friends of the little wanderers but up to the time of our going to press we have not been able to learn anything in relation to them

Beloit, Sept. 2, 1862

Postmaster Monroe

There are two little girls wandering about the streets here in search of a home. They say they are from Monroe. They give their names as Mary Ann Welsh and Sarah Jennings. We think they have run away from home.

Yours in haste,

Mrs. Minerva Abeel (or Abul?)

Married, on the 17th Sept., by Elder F. B. Rolph at his residence in the town of Jefferson, Milton R. Shuyer(?) to Adaline Lovelace, both of Jefferson.

October 1, 1862

On Saturday morning, 25th ult., Miss Martha Acasta Davis of this place committed suicide by taking strychnine. A inquest was held on the body by L. Rote, Esq., J. P., at which inquest R. B. Brownfield, Mrs. Elizabeth Brownfield, Mrs. R.J. Stephenson and Mrs. Ann Beattie were examined as witnesses from whose testimony it appears that the deceased was afflicted with hypochondria and in one of her desponding moments voluntarily took poison which terminated her existence.

October 8, 1862

A very melancholy casualty occurred in the town of Clarno on Saturday last by which Frank Jones, son of Joseph Jones of that place between 7 and 8 years of age came to a sudden death. The deceased was in the woods with others for the purpose of gathering roots and while riding in a wagon was thrown out by an overhanging limb of a tree and his head falling between the wheels of a wagon and a sapling was shockingly crushed, causing death in about ten minutes.
